* [Sri Narayana teertha (17th C), one of the greatest Vedic scholars of BhArata-desam, believed to be the third incarnation of Veda-vyAsa – after Jayadeva & KsheTrayya – was born near Kaza, Mangalagiri, and lived and composed the renowned opera in Samskritam, Sri Krishnaleela-tarangiNi, in Varabur, Tamilnadu. Teertha's disciple Satguru Bodhendra Swami, 59th pontiff of Kanchi Sankaracharya peetham, propagated this scholarly musical work through Sankeertana paddati. This opera covers Krishna jananam through Rukmini kalyanam following the 58 chapters of the 10th Canto of Srimad Bhagavatam].
